Dear GMCA Complaints Reviews Team,

Speaking candidly here.

Thanks for reviewing the case. I'm understandably disappointed. I have some gripes.

The officers that tried to mutilate someone obviously thought they could get away with it, which says a lot about the levels of respect they have for their overseers.

Having been caught 'red handed', and still nothing happens, says a lot about their overseers and the lack of respect they gave it from the off, is now completely understandable in the given.

I stopped for officers X0127 MOORHOUSE and PC15744 GARSIDE twice, they robbed me twice. They then tried to kill me using every tool in their smarmy neo-liberal fascist toolbox. Theft, jail, infiltrating and commandeering every part of the apparatus of local authority to levels that are just outrageous. Good job im not normal eh, normal people don't survive these sorts of attacks.

The two main officers in question; X0127 and PC15744: Apparently, these officers have absolutely no connection. I had to complain to 101 just last week because one of these sorts hacked my google account and deleted over 100 images off my businesses work profile. I was contacted by Inspector 14515 Buchanan on the phone who personally told me "he was their line manager", 'their' being the operative word relating to the two traffic officers at the center of this issue. Not withstanding the fact it was them two officers that took my cars, just look at the charge sheet from 9th August 2021, it will have both their names on, if it doesn't then boy oh boy what a pantomime, no body is safe if that's been tampered with, no one.

Personal note:

Bogus. Faith in the system; gone: faith in decency and anticipation of proportionate handling; gone: respect; gone.

My outlook is this; i will fix these people myself when i bump into them. I won't be coming to your sorts for anything other than a bedtime story or a headache or documents with other peoples name on should I need anything like that in the future.

'All this' has come about through a situation that developed whilst i was going through the most stressful time of my life. I have come round from that now and see i was preyed on in my moment of weakness. These people, they are not police, they are frauds, thieves and murderers and clearly someone has to stick up for what is right. I will not have these sorts of people allowed to maraud at free will on the the streets. If you or any number of their numerous superiors can't see to it that they are removed from their position, their mess tidied up and the threat they represent to anyone they encounter is neutralised, then i will take it upon myself to do what is needed. If i catch any one of them two officers either X0127 or PC15744 in a uniform, there will be trouble.

Final: I understand there may be external influences and/or possibly lack of insight owing to circumstances outside the GMCAs' control. I believe in full light of the dynamics of the situation, it would be near impossible that anyone could see it differently. I'm not asking for much, I wanted the money for my stolen cars back, wasn't chasing compensation for this that and the other, and i wasn't out to make a mess of things by publicly divulging using the numerous forms of printing press at hand. But to come this far and be told no no no no no. I just hope it's not anyone of your own that goes through something like this because woe betide huh, i just hope they've got enough in them to defend themselves and scrape survival. I may yet walk into a local pub and be glassed stabbed attacked who knows. Oh and the one person i mentioned in the paperwork, my ex-girlfriend Nikita; the only person i named as a friend (incase i got jailed again through these corrupt people), she is now being harassed by the various entities related to the court and very much outside usual routine. So its obvious they come after your family as well. Good people huh. Whatever sort of murderous pantomime you lot are running, fix it.
